RENÉSİM FINE JEWELLERY

Arising of a longstanding family tradition of 180 years RENÉSİM designs and manufactures made-to-measure, individual and unique objects. Europe's first online jeweller in the luxury sector has now opened a 400 m² store for customers to experience the exclusive RENÉSİM concept that is as spectacular as its signature object: The Holly Blue, a single piece of platinum and sapphires in the shape of a butterfly. Renésim, Amiraplatz 1, 80333 Munich. www.renesim.com

GABRIELLA INGRAM HANDBAGS

British handbag designer, Gabriella Ingram, started her own label just a few years ago. The handbags are created for the discerning customer interested in luxury and individuality, very much not traditional leather bags, they can be seen as wearable art, taking their inspiration from the different materials she works with from etched stainless steel, acrylic, wood to rubber. Based in London and Berlin, Ingram makes all pieces by hand, all produced in small limited editions. Her bags are now stocked worldwide in galleries, museums as well as fashion stores. www.gabriellaingram.com

THERESIANTHAL SCHLIERSEE COLLECTION

The art of glassmaking has been an ancient tradition and is still being kept up today at the Theresienthal glassworks located in the Bavarian Forest. At present, tumbler of the "Schliersee collection" with themes of wildlife and hunting are being manufactured. It takes an hour to engrave wild boars or roe deer onto the glasses. The collections date back to ancient, traditional moulds that have been updated with utmost care to match modern glass design. Handmade pieces from 172 euro.

► THERESIANTHAL CAN BE FOUND AT KUSTERMANN (VIKTUALIENMARKT)
